Jelly Baby Song

“Sing Sugar Sugar”.....

Alison Hams is one of Australia's most professional & versatile performers, with a reputation for colourful onstage appearance and fine musicianship.

Alison is an internationally-awarded singer, songwriter and recording artist with a passion for working with children, and raising money for charity.

Alison and husband Mark Tempany run the highly successful “Stormfront Music Tutoring” service for over 110 music students each week.

Mentoring and supporting young singers, songwriters and musicians - Stormfront regularly creates professional performance opportunities for these students - and encourages these “stars of the future” to be valued members of their local community.

Personally touched by Type 1 Diabetes - Alison has now combined her love of music, songwriting and children to write the “Jelly Baby Song”!

Produced by Mark & Stormfront student singers - the song will be released exclusively through online music stores on 1st May in-line with Jelly Baby Month - with 95% of sales donated to JDRF!

“Jelly Baby Song” is a toe-tapping tune that adults & children alike will enjoy - so purchase your copy NOW to help a vital and valuable cause!
